Gospel Reflections

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Jesus Christ,

*“My sheep hear my voice;
I know them, and they follow me.
I give them eternal life, and they shall never perish.
No one can take them out of my hand.”*

The other day, I was in a hurry to attend a meeting. Hastily I got into my car and drove a little, then suddenly it flashed through my mind: ‘did I lock my house?’ I didn’t want to leave my house unsecured. So, I had to drive back home to make sure everything was secured. I am sure you too have gone through such situations. How many times did you press your key this morning to make sure your car was locked? Why do we prefer to live in a gated community? We hear about Social Security, cyber security and so on. Security is a basic human need. Wherever we live, we’d love to be safe and secure. How much money, time and energy do we spend to make sure we’re safe? We do it all for this perishable life. If it is so, how much more care should we take to make sure our soul is secured? Is not the safety of our soul more important than everything else? Feeling secure gives us a restful sleep. I mean, a peaceful death.

Think about our eternity; think about our life after our death. Make sure we are safe after our death. So, we need a higher protection that could remove all our fears, even the fear of death. We need a divine protection to make sure our soul is safe. Jesus gives us the guarantee, if we give ourselves into his hands, he will make sure that we are safe forever. So, why are we reluctant to give ourselves into his hands? Remember, ‘it is God who arms us with strength and keeps our way secure.’ The true protection comes only from God. So be always a friend of God. Don’t worry about our wrongs. God will forgive us and make us again his friends. It is God’s promise that he will not reject a contrite heart. Our God is kind and merciful. Do you remember Cain who killed his brother Abel? After killing his brother, Cain lived in fear. He feared others would kill him. So, he begged God to protect him from his enemies. God did not say no to Cain. Instead, God said: ‘Whoever kills Cain will be punished...’ And then God put a mark on Cain so that anyone who would come to kill him might know that he was a friend of God. The same God has put a divine mark on us, bathing us in the precious blood of his only Son, Jesus. That divine seal is a warning to all who come to hurt us. That mark is a divine protection that says we are friends of God. Let us be proud of being known as God’s friends. It is an honor and a privilege to become a friend of God. But remember, kindness and forgiveness are the core of God’s friendship. And that is the friendship God is exactly asking us to live. Kindness and forgiveness are the virtues through which we enter into God’s friendship.

It is God’s love that makes us special. My redemption begins at the very moment I experience the love of my God. It is God’s love that made St Paul, who was once a sinner, to say: “neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor things present, nor things to come, nor powers, nor height, nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord”.

Feeling safe matters. The best way to be secure is to become a friend of God. For, we are made for God. God loves us, cares for us and desires our closeness with him. God is our refuge and fortress. Even in my death, my Lord accompanies me and takes me safely to a Blessed Life. I am always happy because no one can take me out of my Lord’s hand. So, to live peacefully, let us upgrade our security after God’s measurement. Eternal life is a relationship with God, who is the source of life. The mystery of a relationship with God is that when we become friends of God, we become friends of all. Our love for God compels us to sacrifice ourselves for others as Jesus did for the redemption of others. We will not die if we become friends of Him (God) who does not die. Look beyond this grave and stay as God’s friends. And be proud of being a friend of God.

My love and God’s blessings,
Father Sebastian Earthedath, MST

Happy Mother's Day

May is the Month of Mary and Mother's Day is May 11th. Mayo es el mes dedicado a María, nuestra Madre celestial, y el 11 de mayo celebramos el Día de las Madres. This year, as we venerate Mary during the month of May, we also reflect on the leadership of Pope Francis and his devotion to Mary. Pope Francis reminded us of Mary's important role as mother And intercessor:

"The Blessed Mother shows us Jesus. She always opens the doors for us! The Madonna is the mother who takes us by the hand towards Jesus..." In his remarks, the Holy Father called on the faithful to turn to Mary, entrust themselves to her, and imitate her "yes" to the Lord. Mary, as the first disciple and figure of the Church, the Holy Father suggested, "is herself a 'letter' written with the Spirit of the living God. Through the Blessed Virgin's example and intercession," he continued, "she encourages us to also say our own 'yes' to Him whenever we face a call to obedience or a challenge to overcome."

Reflexiones del Evangelio

Queridas hermanas y hermanos en Jesucristo,

*“Mis ovejas oyen mi voz;
Yo las conozco, y me siguen.
Yo les doy vida eterna, y no perecerán jamás.
Nadie las arrebatará de mi mano.”*

El otro día, tenía prisa por asistir a una reunión. Me subí apresuradamente al coche y conduje un poco, y de repente me vino a la mente: “¿cerré con llave mi casa?” No quería dejar mi casa sin asegurar. Así que tuve que regresar para asegurarme de que todo estuviera cerrado. Estoy seguro de que tú también has pasado por situaciones similares. ¿Cuántas veces esta mañana presionaste el botón de tu llave para asegurarte de que tu coche estuviera cerrado? ¿Por qué preferimos vivir en comunidades cerradas? Escuchamos hablar de la Seguridad Social, la seguridad cibernética, y mucho más. La seguridad es una necesidad humana básica. Dondequiera que vivamos, queremos sentirnos seguros. ¿Cuánto dinero, tiempo y energía gastamos para asegurarnos de estar protegidos? Y todo esto lo hacemos por esta vida percedera. Si es así, ¿cuánto más cuidado deberíamos tener para asegurarnos de que nuestra alma esté segura? ¿No es acaso la seguridad de nuestra alma más importante que todo lo demás?

Sentirse seguro nos da un sueño reparador. Me refiero a una muerte en paz. Pensemos en nuestra eternidad; pensemos en nuestra vida después de la muerte. Asegurémonos de estar seguros también después de morir. Por eso necesitamos una protección superior que pueda quitar todos nuestros miedos, incluso el miedo a la muerte. Necesitamos una protección divina para asegurar que nuestra alma esté a salvo. Jesús nos da esa garantía: si nos entregamos en sus manos, Él se asegurará de que estemos seguros para siempre. Entonces, ¿por qué somos reacios a entregarnos en sus manos? Recuerda: “es Dios quien nos da fuerzas y asegura nuestro camino.” La verdadera protección viene solo de Dios. Así que seamos siempre amigos de Dios. No te preocupes por nuestros errores; Dios nos perdonará y nos hará de nuevo sus amigos. Es promesa de Dios que no rechazará un corazón contrito. Nuestro Dios es bondadoso y misericordioso.

¿Recuerdas a Caín, quien mató a su hermano Abel? Después de matarlo, Caín vivió con miedo. Temía que otros lo mataran. Entonces suplicó a Dios que lo protegiera de sus enemigos. Dios no le dijo que no. En cambio, Dios dijo: “Quien mate a Caín será castigado...” Y luego Dios puso una señal sobre Caín para que cualquiera que intentara matarlo supiera que era amigo de Dios. Ese mismo Dios ha puesto una marca divina sobre nosotros, bañándonos en la preciosa sangre de su único Hijo, Jesús. Esa señal divina es una advertencia para todos los que intenten hacernos daño. Esa marca es una protección divina que declara que somos amigos de Dios. Sintámonos orgullosos de ser conocidos como amigos de Dios. Es un honor y un privilegio ser amigo de Dios.

Pero recuerda, la bondad y el perdón son el núcleo de la amistad con Dios. Y esa es precisamente la amistad que Dios nos pide vivir. La bondad y el perdón son las virtudes por las cuales entramos en la amistad de Dios. Es el amor de Dios lo que nos hace especiales. Mi redención comienza en el momento en que experimento el amor de mi Dios. Es el amor de Dios lo que hizo que San Pablo, quien antes fue pecador, dijera: “ni la muerte, ni la vida, ni ángeles, ni principados, ni lo presente, ni lo por venir, ni poderes, ni lo alto, ni lo profundo, ni ninguna otra cosa creada podrá separarnos del amor de Dios que es en Cristo Jesús, nuestro Señor.”

Sentirse seguro importa. La mejor manera de estar seguros es hacernos amigos de Dios. Porque fuimos hechos para Dios. Dios nos ama, se preocupa por nosotros y desea que estemos cerca de Él. Dios es nuestro refugio y fortaleza. Incluso en mi muerte, mi Señor me acompaña y me lleva con seguridad a una Vida Bendita. Siempre estoy feliz porque nadie puede arrebatarme de la mano de mi Señor. Así que, para vivir en paz, mejoremos nuestra seguridad según las medidas de Dios. La vida eterna es una relación con Dios, quien es la fuente de la vida. El misterio de una relación con Dios es que, cuando nos hacemos amigos de Dios, nos hacemos amigos de todos. Nuestro amor por Dios nos impulsa a sacrificarnos por los demás, como lo hizo Jesús para redimir a los demás. No moriremos si somos amigos de Aquel (Dios) que no muere. Mira más allá de la tumba y permanece como amigo de Dios. Y siéntete orgulloso de ser amigo de Dios.

Con mi amor y las bendiciones de Dios,
Padre Sebastian Earthedath, MST
